The excursion on the Sunflower road last nday was in all respects an enjoyable af-leave about one hundred persons, male and female, among whom were some of our prominent citizens, gathered at the depot, but the train did not leave until 10 a. m. The genial conductor, J. M. Flemming had charge of the train and Mat Donahoe assets $4,000. handled the lever. In order that the pany might be well represented, Ad N. Jones, the gentlemanly and obliging agent, accompanied the excursion, and as a matter nediately after crossing the big river Donahoe began handling his lever as a good driver handles his lines to urge his team; eradually but surely the fron horse began we crossed the track of the Wichita and Western our poble steed went dancing merily over the splendid track at a speed that won the admiration of all. The trip, about facturers of New Jersey and eastern Pennthirty miles to Conway springs, was made in just one hour, including stops at all stations and a stop of fifteen minutes at Cleartions and a stop of fifteen minutes at Clear-

The track is in splendid condition, and the train, consisting of two coaches and a caboose, glided over it as smoothly as a bicycle on a marble floor. The track is laid about a mile beyond Conway Springs. The writer is a practical trackman, and takes this occasion to say that never has he seen a more splendid piece of track than that laid since the company resumed work about two weeks ago. The ties are a choice lot of the best twenty-swo inches apart from centre to right angle across the track. The steel that is now being laid is the Pennsylvania Steel brother of the general roadmaster, and is put up in a shape that clearly indicates that this gentleman is not much behind his brother in the science of railroading. The town of Millerton is but a small place few residences. The new town of Conway Springs stands upon a gently elevated piece of prarie, from which an excellent view of the surrounding country, unobstructed by tree or shrub, can be had. It is plainly visible for miles away, and when it becomes a city, which it undoubtedly will in a few years, it will present a very prominent appearance. On the arrival of the train at its destintaion the excursionists, who had been augmented at every station, poured out of the train and scattered all over the embryo city. Everybody made a break for the springs, which water. The writer has visited numerous celebrated springs, and has no hesitation to pronounce these waters of great merit.

After partaking of the waters a raid was made on the restaurants for dinner, there being no hotel yet opened there, but there will be in a few days. The restaurants are two in number, and small, but they manage two in number, and small, but they manage to accommodate all who come. The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the corn trade, says: The weather for the past week has been much colder, with frosty nights and heavy fogs, which were unfavorable for threshing. The values continue in favor of buyers. The sales of English wheat the past week were 59,326 quarters at 40s, 5d, compared with 67,745 quarters at 40s, 3d, the corresponding week last year. Barley is cheaper, except samples, which were scarce. The trade in foreign grain, in the buyer's favor, we'e large. The imports last week from America in the off coast trade was thriving. Two cargoes arrived, four sold, one withdrawn, and two removed. Fourteen cargoes now due. Carmoved. Fourteen cargoes now due. Cargoes affoat for shipment were neglected and values nominal. The cold weather caused sellers to harden the prices of wheat. The trade is greatly depressed and very slow.

John Bright, in a long letter favoring free frade, argues that since its adoption by Enpland, the price of food and hours of labor have diminished, while the wages have doubled. He says although the trade in England is momentarily depressed, the depression is far greater in protective countries like Russia, France and America. He concludes by saying the averther of the party. like Russia, France and America. He con-cludes by saying the overthrow of the party of protection and monopoly in America may prove to be a great blessing, and when England and America have embraced the policy of free industry the whole fabric of monopoly throughout the world will totter to its downfall.

CORK, Nov. 17.—Patrick N. Fitzgerald, fenian suspect, acquitted at Dublin on the 10th inst, of complicity in the Tubber Currey cases, arrived here to-night. An immense concourse of people greeted him. The horses were taken from the carriage and it was drawn through the streets by the people. A torchlight procession and bands of music escorted Fitzgerald to the hotel.
